

Dear students, parents, and teachers,

Many congratulations on your outstanding achievements in the IB Diploma. It has been a difficult 2-year for our students due to the challenges posed by the pandemic. Students and teachers had to adapt to a new platform of online learning for most of the IB Diploma curriculum. We are proud to observe that our students have managed to build resilience and overcome many challenges and have excelled in their internal assessments and examinations.

We must thank our teachers for their adaptiveness and professionalism in coping with the changes in the IB Diploma curriculum and the learning environment due to the pandemic. Your effort in ensuring our students continued to learn successfully has paid off in a stellar set of results. We would also like to extend our appreciation to all of our students' teachers over the past 12 years who have fostered their development.

Lastly, we would like to thank our parents for their ongoing support for the school. Effective home-school communication is the key to our success in providing high-quality education. We hope to continue our success in the future.

Warm regards,

Dr Lau Siu Ling
Head Principal
